CAUGHT IN THE ACT

re three Wednesday night homecoming events. The preliminary field of 75 candidates narrowed down to 30 last night during the beauty and poise competition which included a poll question to each of the girls. Private interviews will narrow the field to 15 on Friday.

FORTAS Withdraws Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP) - In a strongly worded letter to President Johnson, he attacked the Supreme Court Justice Alvin Almquist's refusal to oppose him. The Senate's refusal to cut off a filibuster by opponents of Fortas's confirmation, Johnson said.

"The action of the Senate, a body I revere and to which I devoted a dozen years of my life, is historically and constitutionally tragic."

FIRST TIME

Supporters of the nomination said

Fortas was the first Supreme Court nominee to be denied confirmation by a filibuster, although the Senate has refused to confirm about one-sixth of all Supreme Court nominees.

Senators began immediate speculation whether Johnson would submit another nomination and try to win confirmation before Congress adjourned next week.

Senators began immediate speculation whether Johnson would submit another nomination and try to win confirmation before Congress adjourned next week.

Another alternative would be for the President to make a recess appointment after Congress adjourns, but Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., who led the fight for Fortas's confirmation, said this would be undesirable.

Fortas, in requesting withdrawal of his nomination, said the Senate had failed to end the filibuster against calling up his nomination and also that the Supreme Court will start a new term on Monday.

MORE EFFORTS

He said that continued efforts to secure confirmation, even if eventually successful, "would result in a continuation of the attacks upon the court which have characterized the filibuster—attacks which have been sometimes extreme and extremely unkind to responsible criticism."

Fortas said he hoped withdrawal of his nomination would "help to put in motion a process by which there will be an end to destructive and extreme assaults upon the court."

The withdrawal letter dwelt on what he termed attacks on the court.

"I pray that we shall see, in all of our nation, renewed dedication to the principles of fairness and justice and moderation, without which our country is in danger," he said.

Utah Nixon Youth Blasts Debate Offer

by Judy Geissler
Student Government Editor

Utah's Youth for Nixon chairman blasted the decision of the College Young Republicans to enter a three-way debate with representatives of Hubert Humphrey and George Wallace.

"The election is between Nixon and Humphrey, and the debate should be, too," said David A. Hall, chairman of the state-wide Nixon youth organization. His comment came as response to Tuesday's article in the DAILY UNIVERSE stating a debate was being sponsored by the Academics Office and the UNIVERSE between the three campus parties.

Hall enumerated two reasons why he did not wish to see the debate materialize.

"All this debate can do is confuse the issue," he explained. "Adding publicity to Wallace's efforts won't bring him any closer to election. Nixon is going to win anyway."

"What's Nixon's answer?" the youth leader continued. "He doesn't need to debate anyone. The Nixon campaign should be concerned about furthering Nixon's candidacy. This debate cannot help but distract from that effort."

STAY ALONE

"In other words, the plan of the Nixon camp is to play it cool, to stay calm and cool," Hall said.

"He asked what he would have done and the debate challenge been directed to the Youth for Nixon rather than the Young Republicans.

"I would have flat turned it down," he said. "The purpose of the Youth for Nixon is to ignore nominees for three-way debates, or forums."

Hall stated he felt Nixon would come out ahead in a three-way debate, but expressed the fear that "Wallace would gain a vote that would have otherwise gone to Nixon."

He went on to explain what he would do now if the decision were to make.

"The first thing I would do is make arrangements to leave Wallace out, and have just a Nixon - Humphrey debate," the junior from Minnesota said. "If that couldn't be done, I'd seriously consider cancelling the debate altogether."

WHAT NOW?

If the debate is to be held, Hall felt the Academics Office would support the efforts of the team representing the Republican nominee. "I even think I'd enjoy participating myself," he said.

"There are many issues that could be discussed, but the main point ones are the ability to govern, the trust and confidence our allies will have in the new president, and law and order."

The debate is the result of a challenge directed to the Young Republicans by members of the BYU Forensic Association. In turning down that challenge, the YAAP challenged the Young Republicans and Young Democrats to do the same.

A debate has been proposed and a debate has been scheduled for some date in the future.

Further details will appear in the UNIVERSE.

Wolthius

Speaks

Today

Dr. Robert Wolthius, legislative assistant to U.S. Senator Wallace Bennett (R-Utah), will speak in the Varsity Theater today at 3 p.m.

Dr. Wolthius, who has been with Senator Bennett for the past four years, will talk to a student about behind-the-scenes affairs in Washington such as pressure groups, lobbying and political persuasion, according to Dr. Gary Peterson of the College of Speech and Dramatic Arts.

FORUM

Dr. David E. Smith, medical director of the Haight-Ashbury Medical Clinic, San Francisco, will address BYU students in today's forum assembly.

Dr. Smith, 29, is a nationally-known writer, editor and speaker. He has received the SAMA Research Award and the Survey of Anesthesiology Award.

The hippie movement, according to Dr. Smith, is the result of a breakdown in the relationships between the young and the "older generation."

AWS FASHION SHOW

... Pat Harward, left, Joyce Holden and Sharyn Gardner anticipate the AWS Fashion show. The show, to be Saturday at noon in the Wilkinson Center Ballroom, is sponsored by AWS as part of the annual Mother-Daughter Weekend. The theme of the event is "Joy of Womanhood."

Crass Notes

By John Paxman

These are merely random reflections of items and occurrences that, for the most part, go without mention. I do not mean to be demeaning.

NOTED: Owing to one of the remarks in President Wilkinson's speech—which, in essence, stated that we must approach our work here at the university with zest—there are many students who carry a bar with them at all times. Now, that was clean, wasn't it?

NOTED: A student told me that his driving privileges at BYU were revoked because he refused to drive in the specified lanes. It seems that there are two choices—extreme right or extreme left. Take your pick.

NOTED: Some students come to BYU thinking that a Thesaurus is some kind of a prehistoric animal.

NOTED: Still others, no doubt near-sighted, operate under the misconception that one must go overseas in order to study abroad.

NOTED: The official announcement concerning the Cougar Band's new reversible-visible-double-them-up-and-sit-on-them-operatic-plug has described the artificial blue fur as "being similar to that used in bathroom rugs." What's good for one head is good for another!!

NOTED: Den Rather, the only newsmen to be given the floor (he was decked by an irate delegate) at a political convention, will speak at this university on Nov. 7. The circular that announces his coming states: "He will be in a unique position to sum up the results of the election!!! I'd rather hope he won't be lying again."

NOTED: Contrary to popular notion, the BYU grapevine has not been trampled. But, the grapes of wrath are still being quashed.

NOTED: The "Bring Wallace to BYU" petition was signed by 6,000 and some-odd persons. The only comment that I can make is... YAIPIII!

NOTED: While on their Oriental tour this past summer, did the Starline cast entertain, with their customary hoopla, any diey other than Buddha? Why weren't Confucius, Mazda, Brahma, The Tao, Vishnu, Krishna, Siva, True Name, Malavaria, and Kahlil Gibran included? It would have been an opportunity to rev it up and try to impress everybody with their fairies cultural heritage!!

For some time it has been proclaimed at BYU that: "THE WORLD IS OUR CAMPUS," when in reality the opposite is sometimes true. Let us be accused of limiting my scope, I feel some obligation to relate to you a few noteworthy incidents that transpired some distance from our "world."

NOTED: Two brothers were recently arraigned for the attempted burglary of Provo Lock and Safe Company. The attempt certainly demonstrated their lack of sense ($). Elsewhere, four men were foiled in their attempt to burglarize a warehouse where sheets of aluminum were stored.

NOTED: In New York City the Church of the Mystical Union was recently raided by the NYPD. The fuzz found, cashed in that hollowed edifice, $6 million worth of narcotics and hallucinatory drugs... I've heard of High Mass before, but this is ridiculous.

FINAL NOTE: Someone told me that the new sports arena will be constructed under the terms of a unique agreement—the university will provide the building if the students will provide the seats. As for me, I'd prefer to donate money.

What It Means To Be Poor 'Today.'

Editor's Note:

Because the DAILY UNIVERSE has received so many comments about George Putnam's article "What It Means To Be Poor," which was passed last week, an invitation was issued to Dr. Philip D. Thorpe, part-time faculty member of the Utah County Community Action Program, to express his views on the subject: "What It Means To Be Poor Today." Although the DAILY UNIVERSE does not agree with everything Dr. Thorpe says, we do feel that he makes some good points.

By Philip D. Thorpe, Ph.D.
Director, Utah County CAP

It seems important to point out that there is a great deal more to poverty than Mr. Putnam's cut-and-dried definition and over-simplified solution. He told it like it was... I would like to tell it like it is.

Few Americans, percent-wise, are as poor as than at any other point in our history. This is largely due to attitudes and efforts mentioned by Mr. Putnam. But, it is disturbing to note that despite our progress, 15 percent on our population is still living in poverty. Also, the number of people climbing from poverty has slowed down. In the last 10 years, groups have made no economic advances, and still others have been losing ground.

This worsening situation can be accounted for in part by the following:

1. In the days recalled by Mr. Putnam, there was a strong and a willingness to work even though qualifications for employment. Today, however, technological advances have created a scarcity of unskilled jobs.

This not only reduces easy to welfare, other difficulties, but also deprives them of the opportunity to gain work experience and money for education and training necessary to ascend the economic ladder.

2. It has been amply demonstrated that the poor are less likely to receive their educational and employment opportunities. Also, it has instilled in many of them a helplessness that has inhibited their ambitions.

3. Mr. Putnam's type of poor has pretty well been "creamed off" and we are now faced with the permanent and "hard-core" poor. The permanent are

Drug Solution — The Family Unit

Today we have the opportunity to expand our knowledge and understanding of one of the great social problems of our time—the drug movement, with its associated culture. Dr. David E. Smith, today's Forum Speaker, has information and experience vastly different from that of the average person on our campus and should provide an interesting and challenging point of view.

Problems and difficulties in communication have been cited as key elements in the growth of the drug-oriented subculture generally lumped under the title "hippie." Dr. Smith has acknowledged the gap which exists between younger and older generations and has some definite views regarding it.

Many people assume that the problem involves direct communication and have sought to bridge the gap by adopting the language and life style of the hippie culture. For many, this has created further difficulties in both communication and understanding because much of the hippie expression is esoteric in nature and may take forms which are both varied and outwardly insignificant.

Those who get closer to the problem begin to realize that the problem lies not in the communication of words and ideas, but in the larger and more critical area of socialization. A major breakdown is apparent in our society's ability to communicate social and cultural values to its emerging members.

A society which tolerates divorce as the inevitable result of fifty per cent of its marriages has great difficulty transmitting the principle of family solidarity to its young. Children of broken homes seldom carry the idea that families are adequate problem solving organizations.

Children who depend largely and often fully on television for their entertainment find their needs for imaginative involvement in life frequently frustrated. To such minds, the bizarre experiences of the drug cult hold great fascination.

In a society where a doctor who stops at the scene of an accident may be sued for administering aid, where a crowd walks quietly past a man being

"GUESS WHO, SON?"

THE GENERATION GAP

beaten by thieves, and wherein labor unions jobs for even the unreliable, it is difficult to transmit the idea of involvement and responsibility in the lives of men.

A home where the accumulation of wealth has become so important that the children left without supervision while both parents work in a poor place to teach the worth of a human being in terms of love and sacrifice.

Today many look at the hippies and dropouts (largely the products of emerging middle-class upper-middle class homes) as a freakish outgrowth of times. Others see it as a reflection of changing American and world values. They seem to be reaching for things—love, involvement, basic skills, a supreme imaginative experience, an effort from the need to accumulate things at the expense of people and personalities—but most of these elude them.

For the poor, life is too harsh. They seek to embrace it but to survive. For many of the life is good and fulfilling and they seek to improve it. Somehow it is among much of the middle upper-middle class that detachment has occurred and the young are seeking to embrace life in a meaningful way. The problem appears in the need to find it meaningful.

As we seek to understand the hippie movement and many of the legitimate comments it makes concerning our society, let us also seek to understand the ideals and principles that eliminate conflicts and confusion in the mind of the next generation.

It is our job to create a clean wholesome atmosphere where keen, imaginative minds can grow, adequate family support for their growth and development—where energies now being poured down the sewers of meaningless lethargy and violence can once again contribute to the well-being of mankind.

Two drug films, "The Seekers" and "L'Innuit or Insanity," will conclude showings to from noon until 3 p.m. in the Varsity Theatre.

Robert Driscoll, Student

This course has given me time to enjoy all of the books I have wanted to read for so long.

Ray C. Jolly, Professor

Reading Dynamically has already proved a substantial saving in covering material that I need to use in teaching. It has also made it possible for me to do some reading outside of my professional field—something I have not done in years because of time constraints.

William Moore, Executive

This course has added new dimensions of enjoyment and information to a busy schedule. I would recommend it particularly for the High School or College student who wants planned study and comprehension. It is valuable for anyone determined to put forth the effort.

Scott Moesinger, Student

I'm thoroughly pleased with the course. Last week I read six books on chemistry with better understanding than I've ever had in previous years of study.

- One person at end of this series of demonstrations will win a fully paid scholarship to Reading Dynamics.
- You will see a Reading Dynamics graduate read at amazing speeds from a book he has never seen before and then tell in detail what he has read.
- You will see a documented film that includes actual interviews with Washington Senators who have taken courses.
- You will learn how we can help you to faster reading, with improved comprehension and greater recall.

Airlines Hold Information Session

Major airline representatives will inform students today of their companies' student rate plans.

Hundreds of door prizes, such as airline tickets, travel bags and over 100 travel posters, will be given away between 6:30 and 8:30 p.m. in the Wilkinson Center ballroom.

Representatives from United, Air West, Western and Frontier Airlines will explain student rates, special holiday travel, charters, routes and schedules and the best times to fly.

Employment opportunities as a stewardess will be discussed and any questions may be answered by Western Airlines stewardesses.

There will also be representatives from the Great Lakes Club, the Yankees Club and other regional flight charter organizations to take names for the Christmas charter.

The airlines are sponsored by Associated Mens Students and special assistance provided by the Desert Travel Bureau for helping with the arrangements.

Big problem.

Simple solution:

New Honda.

This lean, lithe Honda 125 Super Sport can be the answer to a lot of problems besides parking.

Consider price. You can buy this beauty at an impressively low initial price; fuel it for a fraction of what you'd spend on a four-wheel gas guzzler. And, of course, there are the pleasantly painless costs of maintaining and insuring a Honda.

The 125 Super Sport couples lightweight economy with red hot performance features. Its dependable four-stroke parallel twin engine produces a dazzling 13 bhp; acceleration that matches the best of them.

And styling. The 125 Super Sport is nothing but class from its streamlined pipes to its sculptured tank to its rugged telescopic front forks. The sleek and sassy 125 Super Sport. Is there a better way to solve your problems?

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Bob Gibson of St. Louis set a World Series record by striking out 17 batters Wednesday as the Cardinals defeated Denny McLain and the Detroit Tigers 4-0 in the first game of the 1968 Series.

Gibson, who yielded 5 hits, also set a Series mark by pitching his sixth consecutive complete game and tied another by recording his sixth consecutive victory.

The Cardinals' 17th mark was set by Sandy Koufax of Los Angeles, who fanned 15 New York Yankees in the opening game of the 1963 Series.

The Cardinals gave Gibson all the runs he needed when they scored three times off McLain in the fourth. Mike Shannon's single drove in one run and Julian Javier's single knocked in the other two.

BRUCE BENNETT

Bennett Tops 'Grid-casters'

Senior Bruce Bennett tucked away another trophy in his weekly University-sponsored "pigskin promos."

Bennett tied with five other BYU students at 11-4, but on the basis of scores predicted was named the winner of the fifth time Bennett has won this honor.

Roger Gillepie, assistant sports editor, topped all competition with a 12-3 record.

SPEED READING

Now, for the first time, Speed Reading has been extended to seven weeks, and sections will be limited for more personalized help. What does this mean to you? Most students just begin to reach their potential at the fifth week; now you will have two extra weeks to develop your maximum ability.

Also, classes will be limited to twenty students per section. This will enable the teacher to provide the maximum of individual help.

If you want more time for extracurricular activities and increased reading efficiency, you should enroll in Speed Reading. Enroll now, sections are limited.

I have a cameo pin that was my grandmother's. I hear they're a good fashion item now. Where can I wear it and what will it look like?

—Janet

Dear Janet,

You are lucky! My, I would love to have a cameo that belonged to my grandmother, but I have one of the new ones. They are very expensive, so I would like to show it to her. It had been her mother's and was forty years old. The pin was a diamond, and we could see exactly like it, down to markings on the back. We had earnings to match for her. I do enjoy you. The place to wear them is on your collar or in ruffles at your throat.

The Critic Reviews:

"Half A Sixpence"By Sherry R. Seem, III
University Movie Critic

Filmed in a comic setting of Old England, "Half A Sixpence," reminiscent of the little village where "Wind In The Willows" might have taken place.

Strolling, strutting Steele charms his way through a screenplay highly equal to his talents. The script lacks ingenuity and freedom, often becoming tiresome in its adherence.

Tommy Steele, Arthur Kipps, and Julia Foster as Ann add a touch of the romantic. Both are realistic in their roles as bright, vital young lovers.

Steele returns in this film the same magnetism and exuberance he demonstrated in "The Happiest Millionaire" and just released, "Finian's Rainbow," will hopefully be equal to the talents of this gifted performer.

Fresh new star Julie Foster brought life to a somewhat dull role. The weak lines of the script do not hinder her from being strong and convincing—sparkling eyes and fond of personality are her trademark.

Benefit Concert Set Tonight

Friends of the BYU Education Center and Diagnostic Clinic are presenting a benefit concert today at 8:15 p.m. in the Orem 4th-27th Ward Chapel, 375 South 400 West, Orem.

Proceeds will be used for graduate training of teachers of children with learning disabilities, research, and other programs.

Downs Recital

Associate Professor of Music Robert Downs will present a program of opera arias, love songs, and musical epics today at 8:15 p.m. in the Harris Fine Arts Center recital Hall.

The program, first of a series of faculty recitals, will include works from Verdi, Ravel, Pearsall and Vaughan Williams.

"Die Dichtkunst," love poems by Heinrich Heine set to music by Schumann, will comprise a major part of the presentation. Downs, a baritone, will be accompanied by Robert Smith on the piano.

J. N. Speech ...

Rusk Blasts Soviets

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., — Secretary of State Dean Rusk quoted the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia Wednesday as "ugly and dangerous" to world peace, and challenged the Russians to end their promises of a military withdrawal.

In a major policy speech to the 3-nation General Assembly, amounting at the end to a scathing attack on the Soviets, Rusk declared the United States will end the bombing of North Vietnam "the minute we can be assured this will lead toward peace."

"WEST IS A THREAT," he warned the Soviets that the United States and its Western allies did not tolerate the threat or use of force against West Berlin or West Germany.

In the Middle East, he urged Israel and the Arabs to take advantage of a small and precious momentum toward peace" and cooperated with the nation of U.N. envoy Gunnar Jarring. In his speech, which was delivered at the United Nations since his appointment in 1961, represented also the policy of an administration which will hand over the reins of government to a new U.S. president in less than four months.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko listened impassively to the speech, ignoring the protestations. Communist leaders did not join in the applause at the conclusion. Gromyko will deliver the Soviet policy speech Thursday.

Some men and some women, ranging in age from 16 to 38, took part in the brief heckling of Rusk. They shouted slogans and displayed banners in the public gallery reading "Stop the War in Vietnam" and "Bring Films Go Rich, Get Due before they were removed by U.N. agents." There were no injuries to the guards or demonstrators, a U.S. spokesman said.

PEACE HOPES SHAKEN

On the invasion of Czechoslovakia, Rusk declared: "This act has sent a shock wave of indignation and apprehension around the world, and has shaken hopes for better East-West relations."

"A world which had begun to speak of a thaw in the cold war feels once again a chill of apprehension concerning Soviet purpose," he said.

Geo. Wallace Set To Name Running Mate

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Third party candidate George C. Wallace said on Sunday he would name the vice presidential choice at 10 a.m. Thursday in Pittsburgh.

Some men and some women, ranging in age from 16 to 38, took part in the brief heckling of Rusk. They shouted slogans and displayed banners in the public gallery reading "Stop the War in Vietnam" and "Bring Films Go Rich, Get Due before they were removed by U.N. agents."

Wallace declined comment on speculation that his choice would be retired Air Force Gen. Curtis LeMay, but said his proposed running mate would be present Thursday.

Wallace arrived in Akron this morning after a flight from Michigan. His arrival came about one hour after sheriff's deputies began a search for a man spotted near the Akron-Canton Airport with a telescope-equipped rifle.

Summit County Sheriff Robert Campbell said the man might have been a hunter, but fled when deputies were dispatched.

Poor Today

poor are the other 42 per cent who include women heading households with an average of three dependent children; those who do not earn even poverty wages; those taking for work; and those who are able to work but are unwilling to do so. (The "swelling" number about ½ million of the poor are those who are largely responsible for Mr. Gunnar and many others, implying that all poor Americans are working less and enjoying it more and crying for government handouts at the same time.)

For the "hard-core" poor, the hope of eventual self-sufficiency is not dead. However, most of them will not so easily without considerable help, e.g., education, training, loans, etc., from both private and government sources. I submit that this help is justifiable for at least the following reasons:

1. It is MORALLY RIGHT: The toleration of persistent poverty amid our national affluence is morally indefensible.

2. It is SOCIALLY SOUND: By fighting poverty we are fighting almost all other known social problems such as crime, riots, drug addiction, illegitimacy, etc., which all occur more frequently among the poor.

3. It is ECONOMICALLY EXPEDIENT: Every time someone is helped to raise himself from poverty he is no longer a tax-eater, but a tax-payer; the nation's manpower resources are regenerated and new consumer markets are created.

The 58 per cent of the poor who are sick, disabled, under 16 or over 65 and for whom society may always have to bear some or all of the responsibility for their support. The "hard-core"

"ONE OR A DOZEN...."

A lb. or a cube. Some stores don't like to be bothered with menial things, but at Millett's we delight in being the exception, whatever it may be, one pork chop if you please. We're here to please and serve you, our customer. Try some personalized service, served up old fashioned style at Millett's."
